"In 2015, I lost my father, my grandmother, and then my son was born. I went from the lowest of lows to the highest of highs while struggling trying to find work-life balance. My Happy family was there for me the entire time. Thanks to Happy, I was able to put family first when they needed me the most."
- Hunter Lord

Hunter was raised in Austin, Texas, and earned a bachelor's degree from Texas Tech University. Hunter has been in banking in North Texas for over 12 years and now lives in McKinney, Texas with his wife, Jenna. Hunter and Jenna have a daughter and a son, Reese and Cooper.

Hunter Lord's Asiago Cream Pasta Sauce

½ cup heavy cream
¼ cup half & half or milk
½ cup grated asiago cheese
1 ½ tbsp. olive oil
1 clove garlic (minced)
1 tbsp. finely chopped onion
Red pepper (optional)
Salt & Pepper (to taste)

Pour olive oil into a small pot and place it over medium heat. Add garlic and onion and let cook until sautéed (5 – 10 minutes; lightly brown and caramelized). Add salt and pepper(s) to taste. When onion and garlic are sautéed, add cream, half & half (or milk) and bring to a slight boil. Turn heat back to medium and add the asiago cheese. Let cook for about 10 minutes or until the sauce thickens slightly. Serves about 2-4 plates of pasta of your choice. Add protein and vegetables for some variety.
